AIIMS NAGPUR • 25-29 NOVEMBER

THE FESTIVAL उत्सव

HALLUCIA, AIIMS Nagpur

HALLUCIA is AIIMS Nagpur's annual cultural, art and sports festival. Each November the campus at MIHAN gives itself over to competitions, performances, music, fashion and sport, and to the kind of late nights a medical timetable does not usually allow. The 2025 edition drew more than 3,700 students from colleges across the country; the institute calls it Central India's largest socio-cultural fest. This year's theme is Desi Maximalism, which is also, conveniently, the dress code.

THE CITY शहर

Nagpur, the Orange City

Outside the gates is Nagpur: old neighbourhoods, Bhonsle-era lakes, oranges by the crate and pocha that arrives under a ladle of spicy tarri. It is the city of Deekshabhoomi, where Dr B. R. Ambedkar and some four lakh people embraced Buddhism in 1956, and of the Zero Mile Stone, the 1907 survey marker that put Nagpur at the centre of the map. Less a backdrop than a second headliner.

the official brief.
dress accordingly.

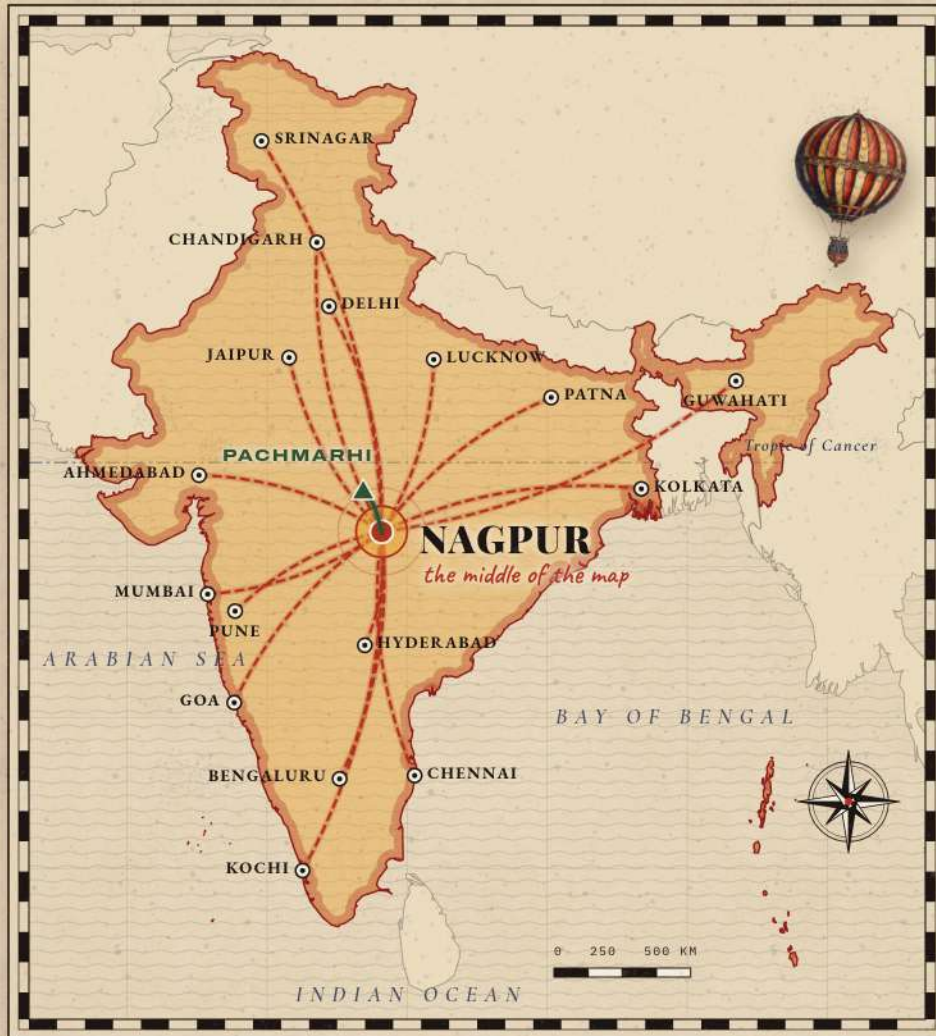

Come for the festival. Stay for the city. Leave via the hills.

DECODING THE MAP — नकाशा

Decoding the map.

Wherever you are in India, the trip begins in Nagpur, a city that has sat at the centre of the map since 1907. Get yourself here; from then on, it's scheduled.

Top secret highlights.

Nine things worth knowing before you pack. Five from the festival, four from the road. Handle with the usual discretion.

AT HALLUCIA उत्सवाद्

N° 01

The pro-shows

The nights HALLUCIA is known for: a headline act, a campus-sized crowd and several thousand phone torches. Sunidhi Chauhan played in 2024; Shreya Ghoshal in 2025. DJ nights and live entertainment fill the evenings around them.

DAY 01 • WEDNESDAY, 25 NOVEMBER पहिला दिवस

01

Welcome to Nagpur.

Two city stops before lunch, then south to the campus. The festival starts tonight; the stories started at breakfast.

BEFORE 9

Arrive in Nagpur

By train or flight, as per the final travel schedule. Bags down, faces washed.

9:00 AM

Breakfast

Tarri pohā and cutting chai: the city's opening argument, and a strong one.

10:00 AM

Deekshabhoomi

The great stupa where Dr B. R. Ambedkar and some four lakh people embraced Buddhism in 1956. Shoes off, voices down.

11:30 AM

Futala Lake

A Bhonsle-era lake and its long promenade. A slow walk before the pace picks up.

1:00 PM

Lunch

Nagpur on a plate: Saoji for the brave, with vegetarian options for everyone else.

2:30 PM

South to AIIMS Nagpur

Check in, collect festival passes, first look at the campus at MIHAN.

EVENING

HALLUCIA, night one

The festival opens. Walk in like you've been before. Dinner included.

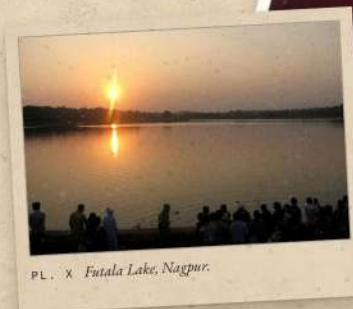

PL. VIII Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur. The largest hollow stupa of its kind, and a place of pilgrimage every October.

DAY 02 • THURSDAY, 26 NOVEMBER दुसरा दिवस

02 Old Nagpur, then HALLUCIA.

The old centre of the map, a museum older than most of the city around it, and a market that tests willpower. Back on campus by three.

9:00 AM

Breakfast, then out

Eat properly. Today involves stairs, lanes and a museum.

9:45 AM

Zero Mile Stone

The 1907 survey marker that made Nagpur the middle of the map. The four horses came later.

10:30 AM

Central Museum

"Ajab Bangla", open since 1863: sculpture, natural history and some magnificent oddities.

12:00 PM

Sitabuldi

The market lanes below the fort hill, on foot. Budget for self-control.

1:15 PM

Lunch

Somewhere local, ideally within reach of santra barfi.

2:15 PM

Down Wardha Road

Past the 3.14 km double-decker viaduct, a Guinness record, on the way south.

3:00 PM

Back at AIIMS Nagpur

The city portion ends. Freshen up; the festival resumes.

EVENING

HALLUCIA, night two

Second night, better outfit. Dinner included.

DAY 06 • MONDAY, 30 NOVEMBER सहावा दिवस

06 The wild side of Pachmarhi.

Water. Rock. Forest. Sunset. A dawn exit from Nagpur, then a day in the Satpura hills, with no unnecessary sightseeing marathon.

04:30 AM

Leave AIIMS Nagpur

Bags packed the night before. The road north does the rest; sleep is encouraged.

07:30 AM

Breakfast on the way

A highway stop. Filling but light, because the day gets physical.

10:30 AM

Check in, Pachmarhi

Hotel check-in. Pack a small day bag: water, good shoes, whatever you need outdoors.

11:15 AM

Bee Falls

A forest trail to 35 m of falling water. Far more cinematic than the average tourist stop.

01:15 PM

Lunch

Proper lunch. Hydrate. Humans get dramatically less adventurous when hungry.

02:30 PM

Reechgarh

Rock and cave country. Time to explore, not a photo checkpoint.

04:00 PM

WHY AS SCHEDULED — आम्हीच का?

A festival is only half the story.

You could buy a pass, book a room, work out the cabs and spend the week doing exactly what everyone else is doing. Or you could come with us. AS SCHEDULED is built on a simple observation: the festival is only part of it. The rest is the city around it, the logistics in between and the people you end up doing it with. We plan the first two with some care, so you can give the rest your full attention.
